

THUNDER IN OUR HEARTS

Feel the power of the horse.

There is thunder in our hearts
and wings on our feet.

We come to you so you might experience
the joy, power, and beauty of movement.

When it is time for change,
take your heart and go.

Freedom is yours.

The winds of change are but a vehicle of growth.

Enjoy the dance that takes you to your next destination.

There is excitement as the wind rushes by.

Feel the thunder in your heart and rejoice
in the freedom of your movement.
